North Haven Garden Club Members Help With Ceremony Of Remembrance Preparations

North Haven Garden Club members Linda Lianos and Cindy Adinolfi recently joined a group of ladies at Connecticut Hospice to paint approximately 300 rocks with flowers and the word "Love" on them. The rocks will be part of Connecticut Hospice's Annual Ceremony of Remembrance on October 18th.

This beautiful and meaningful event honors those who have passed while receiving hospice services over the years. Family and friends of the departed gather for the event which features a reading of the names of those who passed while in hospice care in the past year, as well as live music, speakers and a flower ceremony. Flowers representing each person who passed are placed in the water as a boat carries them out at the end of the ceremony. Those in attendance will be invited to take home one of the painted rocks as they leave at the end of the event.

The Ceremony of Remembrance typically welcomes approximately 300 family members and friends in person, and the event is also live streamed for those who are unable to attend in person.

Thank you, Hannah Righter and Joan Cullen, for inviting us to participate and to contribute to such a special event to help the bereaved remember their loved ones.

The North Haven Garden Club is a member of the Federated Garden Clubs of CT, Inc, the New England Garden Clubs, Inc, and the National Garden Club, Inc. For more information and updates about the North Haven Garden Club, find and follow us on Facebook.

Hamden: On Saturday, October 3, at Stop and Shop, the Hamden High School Dance Team was raising money to get to the Nationals in Orlando Florida! They work hard everyday to build up the skills to compete against some of the best teams in the world! These girls were so enthusiastic about collecting for this fundraiser, and it's so great to see our young students doing something for their schools in Connecticut and doing such a great job. Good luck girls I believe you will make it to the Nationals in Orlando Florida.
