ACADEMIC Excellence

Member of Project Team Named as Finalist in WPI President's IQP Awards

Five undergraduate project teams from Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) were named as finalists for the President's Interactive Qualifying Project (IQP) Awards.

Wallingford resident, Olivia Hollenback, class of 2026, majoring in Aerospace Engineering was a member or one those teams with a project titled Path to Purpose: A Self-Actualization Game.

Five student teams gave their final presentations in front of a panel of judges to determine the winners of the 2025 awards. Presented annually, the President's IQP Awards are given to student teams whose IQP work is determined to be outstanding in its focus on science, technology, and society.

"Cookies For Cops Day" Honors Hamden Police

The Hamden Woman's Club and the Spring Glen Garden Club recently presented five trays filled with delicious homemade cookies and tasty treats to Hamden Police Sargent Calumet in celebration of Valentine's Day with our "Cookies for Cops" celebration. We have been doing this for a few years now to thank our police officers for their hard work and dedication to keeping our community safe. We truly appreciate our Men & Women in Blue and all that they do!

If you have been thinking about joining an awesome and amazing social group to make a positive and rewarding difference in your life in this new year, please consider joining us - the Hamden Woman's Club, Inc., GFWC. The HWC is open to any woman over eighteen years of age who would like to volunteer in the community, develop new friendships, and have fun at the same time! We are a civic, educational and social organization that was organized in 1950 and then joined the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) in 1951. Our Motto is "A Group that Cares and Shares" - which we demonstrate by our many charitable activities to improve the quality of life within our community.

The HWC also provides many fun social benefits to our members. We have fun monthly activities - a unique Book Club that meets at a local restaurant, our "International Lunch Bunch" and our "Dinner Divas". Everyone loves our seasonal choral group as well as our annual banquets, day trips, Military Whists, Bingo and Trivia Nights, Arts & Crafts Competitions, and other fun activities. You do NOT have to live in Hamden to join - many of our members reside in area towns.

The next meeting of the HWC will be on Wed. March 4, at 6:30pm in the Hamden Senior Center (located in the rear entrance of the Miller Library).

Please Join Us! New members are always welcome to attend meetings & social hour! Also, we encourage anyone interested in learning more about HWC please contact Sharon Nolan at Snolan_@yahoo.com. or call (203) 248-2538.
