Town of North Haven Announces Tree Lighting and Menorah Lighting On the Town Green - Dec. 6 & 7

The Town of North Haven invites residents and visitors to celebrate the holiday season with two community events: The annual Tree Lighting on Sunday, December 6, and a Menorah Lighting on Monday, December 7. Both celebrations will feature music, refreshments and family-friendly activities centered on the Town Green.

Tree Lighting: Sun., Dec. 6, 3-5pm at North Haven Recreation Center and Town Green. The celebration begins at the Recreation Center with holiday activities from 3-4:30pm. Families can enjoy selfies with Santa, crafts, games and performances by the Music Center of North Haven.

At 4:30pm, attendees will make their way to the Town Green for carols performed by North Haven High School.

Santa is expected to arrive by firetruck at approximately 4:45pm. Refreshments will be provided by the Knights of Columbus and Vox Church, followed by the tree lighting at 5pm.

Menorah Lighting: Mon., Dec. 7, 4:30-5:30pm at North Haven Town Green. Music will welcome attendees beginning at 4:30pm, and the formal program will begin at 4:45pm. The program schedule includes opening songs followed by welcome and Chanukah message from Rabbi Hecht, including recognition of First Selectman Michael Freda for his years of service to the community. Following remarks, there will be the lighting of the Menorah accompanied by music, songs, refreshments and a raffle.

The Town welcomes community members of all ages to gather with friends and neighbors for these seasonal celebrations.
