Wallingford Adult Education New Location Grand Opening

Wallingford Adult Education officially celebrated the opening of its new location at 4 Fairfield Boulevard, Suite 1, with a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Wednesday, May 13, 2026, attended by local officials, community partners, students, and supporters.

The event brought together representatives from the Wallingford Board of Education, the Quinnipiac Chamber of Commerce, local government, and community organizations to celebrate this exciting new chapter for adult education in Wallingford. Remarks were shared by Mayor Vincent Cervoni who highlighted the importance of lifelong learning and workforce development opportunities within the community.

"This new space was designed with our learners in mind," said Dr. Anthony Mangiafico, Director of Wallingford Adult Education. "Our goal is to provide flexible, high-quality educational opportunities that help students achieve their academic, career, and personal goals."

The new facility offers expanded classroom space and enhanced learning environments to better support Wallingford Adult Education's growing programs, including English as a Second Language (ESL), high school completion programs, family literacy, digital literacy, and healthcare career training programs.

Wallingford Adult Education serves adult learners from across the region and remains committed to empowering students through education, workforce preparation, and community partnerships.
