Boy Scout Troop 811 Performs Community Service Volunteer Activities

North Haven Scout Troop 811 has been working hard to serve the community in recent weeks. This fall, they have helped with leaf pick up on the property of Faith United Methodist Church, volunteered at the concert at NHHS benefiting The Wounded Warrior Project, assisted in placing flags honoring veterans on the NH Town Green, and collected non-perishables to help stock the North Haven Food Pantry. The food drive effort included Scouts and Cub Scouts. The kids left bags at homes throughout North Haven, then returned one week later to collect donations. This year, the total donation to the food pantry was 5,100 pounds. Troop 811 collected 2,929 pounds; Cub Scout Pack 810 collected 1,581 pounds; and Cub Scout Pack 803 collected 591 pounds. Thanks to the generosity of our community, the drive was a big success.

Academic Excellence

Local Eastern Students Inducted into National Honor Society

More than 100 first-generation students from Eastern Connecticut State University were inducted into the Tri Alpha National Honor Society on Nov. 8th, recognizing their academic achievements despite the challenges of being the first in their families to attend college.

From those inducted were:
