Connecticut Violin Player Winner Of The National YoungArts Competition

Wallingford: Kristie Lu, a Wallingford, Connecticut native, has been named a Winner of the National YoungArts Competition and the Winner of the Connecticut MTNA Senior Strings Competition. She will compete as a Division Finalist in the MTNA Eastern Division Senior Strings category.

Lu, the daughter of Sherrie Lai and Frank Lu, is a junior at Choate Rosemary Hall. She has been studying the violin for 11 years and is currently a student of Naoko Tanaka at the Juilliard School Pre-College.

Lu has earned top accolades in numerous international competitions and has performed extensively as a soloist across the United States and Europe. She is a member of the prestigious Juilliard Pre-College Orchestra and serves as the assistant concertmaster of the Choate Rosemary Hall Symphony Orchestra. Beyond her musical achievements, Lu is the Founder and President of Harmony Smiles, a non-profit organization that leverages the transformative power of music to raise funds for providing dental kits to underserved communities.

The National YoungArts Competition, founded in 1981, is a prestigious program that identifies and nurtures the most accomplished young artists across the United States. Winners are chosen for their caliber of artistic achievement by esteemed discipline-specific panels of artists through an adjudication process that includes multiple rounds of review.

For more information about the National YoungArts Competition, please visit the website www.youngarts.org.

Music Teachers National Association is a nonprofit organization comprised of 17,000 independent and collegiate music teachers committed to advancing the value of music study and music making to society and to supporting the professionalism of music teachers. Founded in 1876, Music Teachers National Association is the oldest professional music association in the United States.

The three-tiered MTNA competitions begin at the state level. Winners of each State Competition advance to the Division Competition. Division winners will be announced in mid-January. Division winners then proceed to the National Competition Finals.

To receive more information about the MTNA National Competitions, including competition rules and applications please contact MTNA national headquarters at (888) 512-5278, mtnanet@mtna.org or visit the website at www.mtna.org.
