Rev. Scott Morrow's 30 Year Anniversary

North Haven: The North Haven Congregational Church recently celebrated the 30th anniversary of the Rev. Scott G. Morrow's pastorate at the Church as Senior Pastor, and the 35th anniversary of his ordination. The celebration, on November 17, began with worship in the Church sanctuary and was followed by a lunch reception in the Church's Carroll Hall. The Rev. Lucia Jackson of Days Ferry Congregational Church, in Woolwich, Maine, traveled to North Haven to deliver the sermon and join in the celebration. Rev. Jackson served as Associate Pastor at the North Haven Congregational Church with Rev Morrow from 1999 to 2007. Also in attendance were the Rev. Margret Hofmeister, Area Conference Minister, Southern New England United Church of Christ, and the Rev. Kristie Rubendunst, Moderator of the New Haven East Consociation of United Church of Christ. The Rev. Stoddon King, retired Senior Minister from the Orange Congregational Church, also attended and provided words of congratulations. Rev. Morrow's first call, after being ordained, was to serve as Associate Pastor at the church in Orange. Following five years in Orange, Rev. Morrow was called to the church in North Haven. He and his wife Carol Amico live in North Haven. Their two children were also in attendance at the celebration.

Rev. Scott Morrow

The Rev. Morrow received his Master's of Divinity from Yale Divinity School. During his 30 years of leadership and pastoral care in North Haven, highlights for the North Haven community include: an elevator and a new entrance added to the church in 1997 bypassing stairs and allowing access to both the sanctuary and lower level; and, beginning in 2010, hosting ten homeless men overnight for one week in the winter through the Abraham's Tent program of Columbus House. Also, in 2010 the church officially became Open and Affirming, welcoming LGBTQ+ members and visitors. An interfaith ecumenical service for Sandy Hook following the tragic shooting was held in 2012, and the 300th anniversary of the church in North Haven was celebrated in 2016.

Shared ministry is Rev. Morrow's approach to his pastorate. He often begins worship with the welcome, "no matter where you are in life's journey, you are welcome here". In addition to serving the church, he has also served the North Haven community, and beyond, on many boards including the Town of North Haven Cemetery Commission and Juvenile Review Board, and President of the Woods Edge and Oak View Senior Housing Board He has served on the boards of SAGE Senior Services, Interfaith Cooperative Ministries, Habitat for Humanity of Greater New Haven, and the Police-Citizens Relations Council of Greater New Haven. Rev. Morrow currently serves on the board of Elderly Housing Management, Inc. in North Haven. His involvement in the North Haven community is extensive and he stated, "I have appreciated working with my clergy colleagues in North Haven."

At the church Rev. Morrow is known for his compassion, for delivering thought-provoking sermons, and for meaningful memorial services. Over the last 30 years at the church Scott has presided over 236 baptisms, 466 memorial services, 135 weddings, and 136 youth have completed the church's confirmation program.
