PHOTOS

Biannual fashion show blends football and style

Lily Rand
Photo Editor

On Saturday, Nov. 14, F.A.C.E Models hosted its annual Fall Fashion Show, "NFL X Runway SZN," in the Adanti Student Center Ballroom. The event transformed the ballroom into a football-themed runway, combining fashion and athletics through a series of student-led looks inspired by National Football League culture. Attendees gathered to watch models showcase designs and styles that reflected the event's theme while highlighting creativity and self-expression. The biannual event brought together students, faculty and guests for an evening of fashion and entertainment while celebrating diversity and encouraging personal growth.

More on page 3

Photos: Lily Rand

F.A.C.E models in designer VINA clothes.

Vaga Remains designs on models walking down the runway.

Models walking onto the runway to start their walk.

Models hitting a pose in designer Vaga Remains clothing.

F.A.C.E models wearing their own styled outfits meeting at the center of the runway.

Two F.A.C.E models hitting a pose as they rotate with each other.

Models taking their last lap in Vaga Remains clothing around runway to showcase full collection.

F.A.C.E models wearing her own personalized outfit.

Women's basketball open season with 57-55 victory

Guard Addyson Brissey, a freshman, looking to pass the ball.

Forward Jayla Tyler, a senior, standing on the free throw line to get the rebound.

Lily Rand
Photo Editor

On Saturday, Nov. 14, the university's women's basketball team opened the 2026-27 season with a 57-55 win over Georgian Court University at James Moore Field House. The Owls started the year with a hard-fought victory, improving to 1-0 in the opening game of the four-game Tip-Off Classic hosted by the university. A strong defensive effort and a commanding 52-31 advantage on the boards helped the university control much of the game despite a late push from the Lions. Forward Jayla Tyler, a senior, led the way with a game-high 27 points and 11 rebounds, recording a double-double in the season opener. Guard Addyson Brissey, a freshman, also made an impact, finishing with eight points, seven rebounds, four assists and three steals. Georgian Court rallied in the fourth quarter and briefly took the lead, but the university responded in the final minutes to secure the win.

For more look at page 6

Photos: Mateusz Gazdzicki

Guard Taeya Steinauer, a junior, making a layup.

Guard Kamri Rowland, a freshman, about to shoot a free throw.

Women's basketball players in a huddle.

Guard Jaycee Merizalde, a sophomore, dribbling the ball up the court.