DATA

The class of 2030, by the numbers

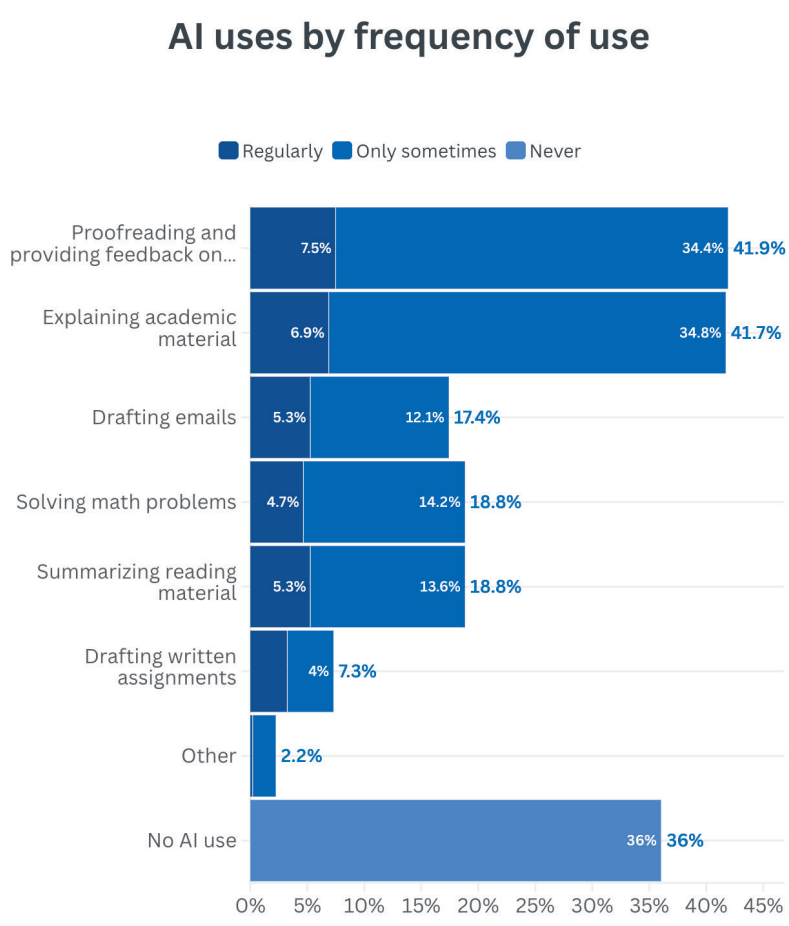
CAMP YALE

45.5% FOOT

16.2% FOCUS

7.5% HARVEST

AI USAGE



FROM THE EDITOR

BY ADRIANA PETRIZZO
DATA EDITOR

Over the last three weeks, the News' Data Desk surveyed the class of 2030 to gauge their current views, experiences and expectations at Yale. The questionnaire was sent to 1,634 first years and received 517 total responses, representing about 31.6 percent of the class. The number of responses varies by question.

HIGH SCHOOL

58.4% attended public, non-charter high schools

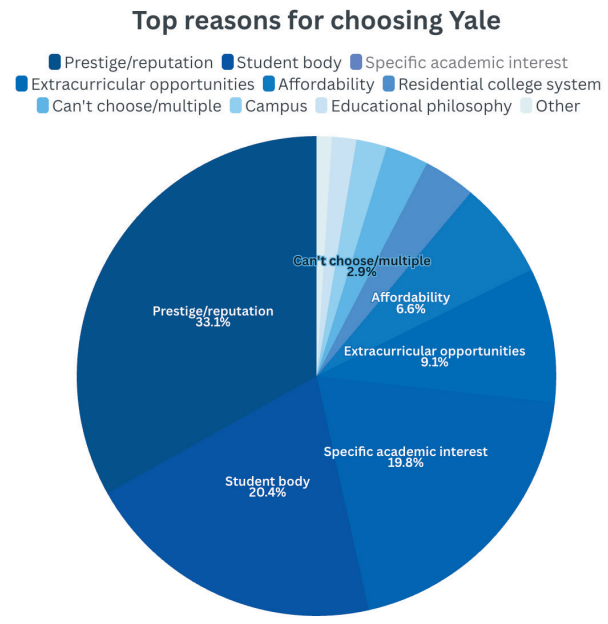
27.3% attended private, non-religious high schools

5.9% attended public charter high schools

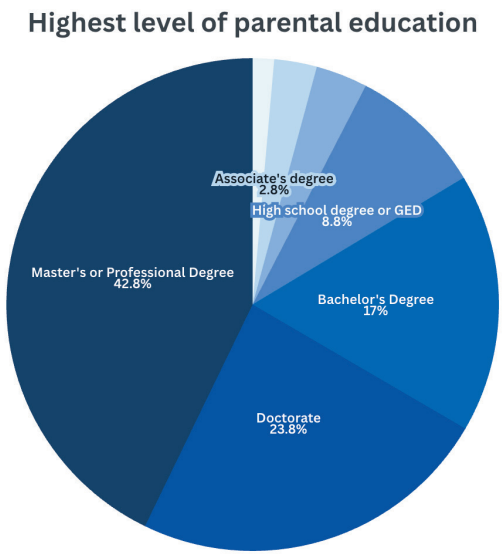
8.2% attended private, religious high schools

0.2% of survey respondents were homeschooled

WHY YALE?



FAMILY



EXTRACURRICULARS

54.5% of respondents participated in athletics in high school

79.9% of respondents did community service in high school

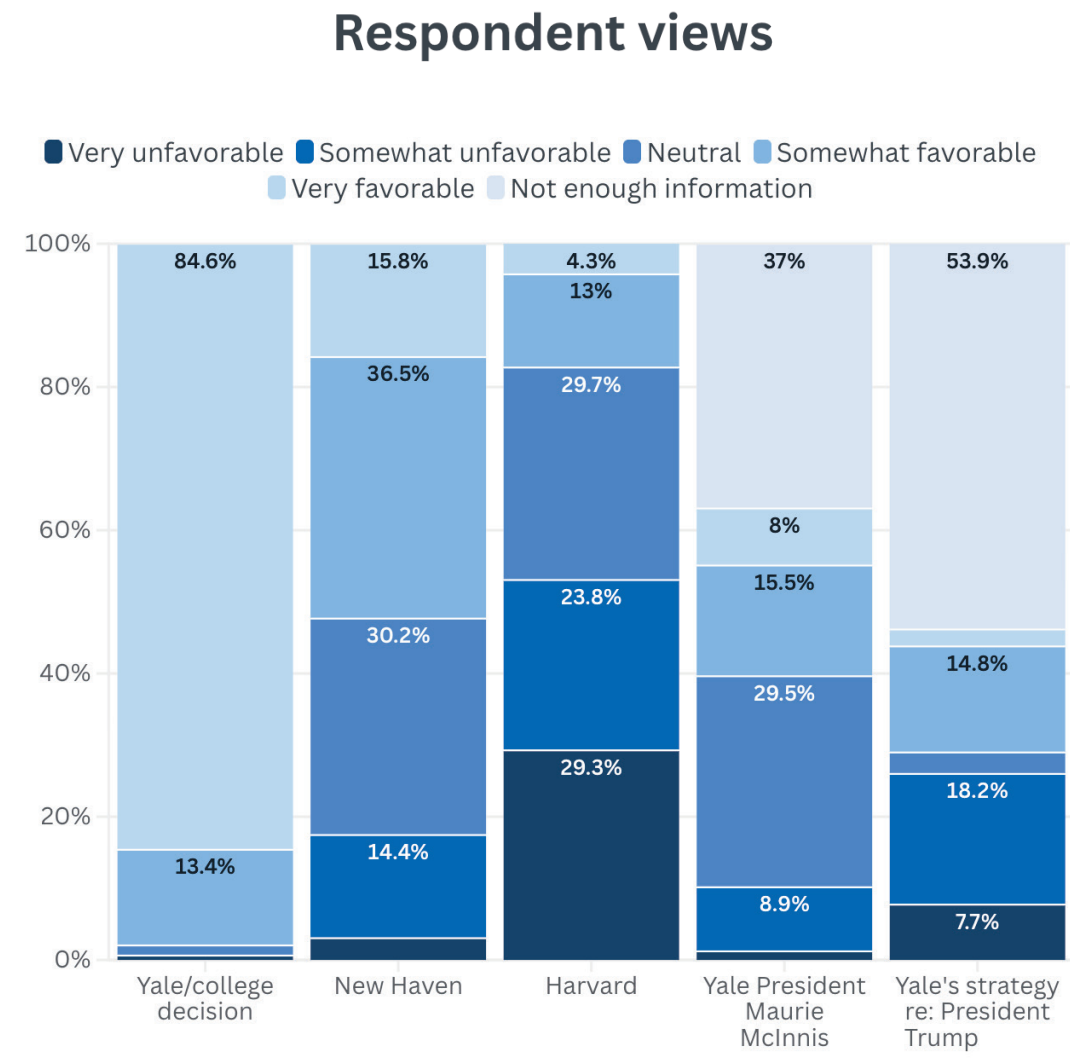
43.5% of respondents were in the National Honor Society

19.1% of respondents did Model UN in high school

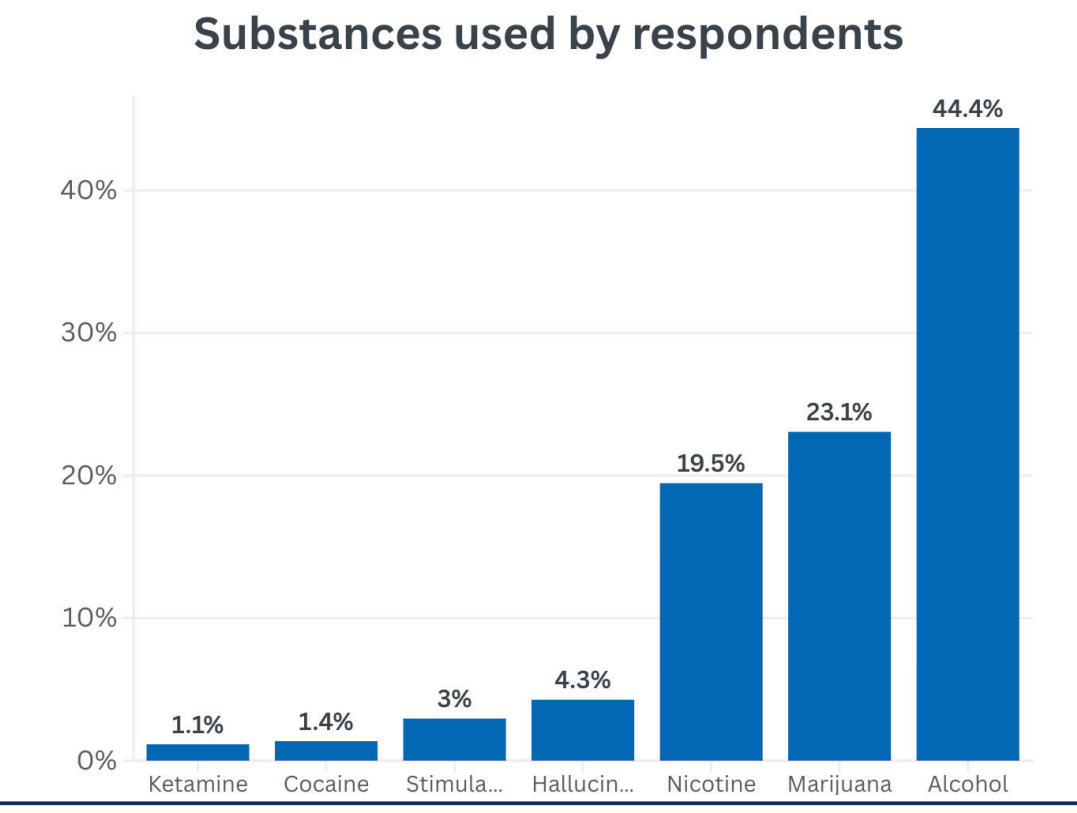
7.7% of respondents danced in high school

40.7% of respondents did research in high school

VIEWS OF RESPONDENTS



SUBSTANCES



STATISTICS

11.7% of respondents identified as bisexual

28.1% of respondents paid for a college counselor