GNHCP MARKS ITS 30TH ANNIVERSARY WITH COMMUNITY CELEBRATION

Northford: The Greater New Haven Cat Project Inc. (GNHCP) will celebrate its 30th anniversary with Meowchella, a community festival on Sat., Oct. 3, from 11am-8pm at the GNHCP Center, 1874 Middletown Avenue, Northford.

The daylong celebration will feature live music from The Martin Girls, The Bargain Band, and Wry Bred, along with local artists and vendors, pet portraits, children's activities, wine tasting, food, and more.

"For 30 years, GNHCP has been strengthened by the compassion, dedication, and generosity of people throughout our community who share our commitment to helping cats in need," said Cheryl DeFilippo, President of GNHCP. "Meowchella is a chance to celebrate that incredible history together while also looking ahead to GNHCP's next chapter."

Founded in 1996, GNHCP grew from grassroots efforts to humanely care for feral cats in New Haven. Today, the nonprofit supports stray, abandoned, and feral cats throughout Greater New Haven through Trap/Neuter/Return, low-cost spay/neuter assistance, adoption, education, and other services.

The anniversary comes as GNHCP begins a new chapter in its history. After outgrowing its longtime home at 965 State Street in New Haven, GNHCP opened a larger center at 1874 Middletown Avenue in Northford in 2025. Meowchella will give visitors an opportunity to celebrate this milestone, experience the center, and learn more about GNHCP's work.

Tickets are $15; children under 12 are free. For tickets and additional information, visit www.gnhcp.org/meowchella.
