Only a Few Seats Left at the Gala -- Will You Fill One?

Join us on Sunday, September 27, 3:30-7:30pm for our Third Annual Fundraising Dinner and Silent Auction held at The Woodwinds in Branford, 29 School Ground Road.

We are looking forward to an evening of food and fellowship with our supporters and community leaders, punctuated by our Keynote Speaker, Anthony "Unk" DaRos, former First Selectman of Branford and respected local historian.

Sponsorships are still available including dinner tickets, recognition at the event, and advertising in the event program. More information available on our website.

Proceeds from the event directly support the restoration of historic equipment, the museum's infrastructure, and educational programs that inspire curiosity and learning for visitors of all ages. By supporting this event, you help ensure that the stories of American ingenuity and the systems that moved America remain accessible, relevant, and alive for future generations. We can't wait to see what opportunities arise during the program!

Reserve your Dinner Tickets now: Shore Line Trolley Museum Info and Tickets.

GNHCP MARKS ITS 30TH ANNIVERSARY WITH COMMUNITY CELEBRATION

Northford: The Greater New Haven Cat Project Inc. (GNHCP) will celebrate its 30th anniversary with Meowchella, a community festival on Sat., Oct. 3, from 11am-8pm at the GNHCP Center, 1874 Middletown Avenue, Northford.

The daylong celebration will feature live music from The Martin Girls, The Bargain Band, and Wry Bred, along with local artists and vendors, pet portraits, children's activities, wine tasting, food, and more.

"For 30 years, GNHCP has been strengthened by the compassion, dedication, and generosity of people throughout our community who share our commitment to helping cats in need," said Cheryl DeFilippo, President of GNHCP. "Meowchella is a chance to celebrate that incredible history together while also looking ahead to GNHCP's next chapter."

Founded in 1996, GNHCP grew from grassroots efforts to humanely care for feral cats in New Haven. Today, the nonprofit supports stray, abandoned, and feral cats throughout Greater New Haven through Trap/Neuter/Return, low-cost spay/neuter assistance, adoption, education, and other services.

The anniversary comes as GNHCP begins a new chapter in its history. After outgrowing its long-time home at 965 State Street in New Haven, GNHCP opened a larger center at 1874 Middletown Avenue in Northford in 2025. Meowchella will give visitors an opportunity to celebrate this milestone, experience the center, and learn more about GNHCP's work.

Tickets are $15; children under 12 are free. For tickets and additional information, visit www.gnhcp.org/meowchella.
