The Hamden Lions Club extends a huge "Thank You" to Kelly owner of Kelly's Cone Connection for hosting the ice cream fundraiser to benefit CLERF and BHcare, two organizations that support children and adults. A heartfelt thank you to all who attended the event and helped raise funds for these worthy organizations.

Annual Holiday Food Drive

North Haven's Annual Holiday Food Drive began October 12, when collection bins were set out at many businesses in town. The Food Drive, sponsored by the Churches of North Haven, is again collecting non-perishable food items to include in holiday boxes that will be provided to families of North Haven for Thanksgiving and Christmas. North Haven families need as much help as possible.

There are many easy ways to donate food. If you or your kids are members of a group or team, you can conduct a collection or publicize the drive within your membership. Non-perishable food items can be donated directly to the Food Pantry at the North Haven Congregational Church any weekday morning between 8am-12pm.

Collection bins are located at North Haven Memorial Library, North Haven Town Hall, Arnold's Jewelers – the North Haven Diamond Center, Be Some Body Fitness & Pilates, Carol's Creations, Chameleon and Company, Community Emergency Response Team, North Haven Pharmacy, Ron's Barber Shop, Spectrum Hair, Surge, and The Maids.

Gift certificates or cash donations can be made toward the purchase of perishable items. Checks should be payable to North Haven Congregational Church, Food Drive in the memo line. Liberty Bank, through a program run by The Rotary Club, will generously match cash and check donations made between October 1 and November 15 at 25%. We have an Amazon shopping list. https://www.amazon.com/registries/gl/guestview/39LSA8MOUUKC?ref_=cm_sw_r_apin_ggr-subnav-share_0M9E-W7H1M1JA4B4VMQC5_1&language=en-US

For more information and a list of specific food items needed, and if you or your business wants to participate in packing or delivery, please call the North Haven Congregational Church at (203) 239-5691.

Community Food Drive to Benefit The North Haven Food Drive a Success!

North Haven: Be Some Body Fitness & Pilates LLC brought the community together for its Annual Food Drive Golden Hour Pilates Class at Broken Arrow Tree Farm, on Monday, October 19, 2026. This special event combining wellness and giving back in a beautiful fall setting.

Participants enjoyed a free Pilates class while donating groceries to benefit the North Haven Food Pantry, helping provide support for local families during the holiday season and beyond. Melissa Daniele, owner of Be Some Body Fitness & Pilates extends heartfelt thanks to everyone who participated, donated, or dropped off food, and to Susan and Burton Jaynes of Broken Arrow Tree Farm for generously hosting the event.

The gathering celebrated the power of community, demonstrating that wellness extends beyond the mat through kindness, connection, and helping others. You can continue donating to the North Haven Pantry, at the North Haven Congressional Church on the green on 28 Church Street, North Haven.
