North Haven Rotary Club Holds A Delicious Dinner For The Community

North Haven: On Friday, April 24, another delicious dinner with a tossed salad, shepherd pie, baked potatoes with fillings of butter, bacon, onions, cheese, chili, and drinks of lemonade, ice tea, water was had to enjoy. The members of the rotary club are so pleasant, helpful, and are always volunteering their time for the community. There was a huge attendance of 70 people who came to this buffet Dinner. Everyone enjoyed the dinner with their friends and relatives with great conversations and laughter. We like to thank the rotary club members for always thinking of the community. Two new members helped us, Manmohan Komal, and his young son Devansh Komal who were wonderful. One of their wonderful members Mary Jane Mulligan, hasn't been with them because her son Richie had a brain procedure, they are having a wonderful pasta dinner for him on May 14, at 5 o'clock at the Knights Of Columbus on Whitney Ave in Hamden for a donation of 20 dollars for his rehabilitation.
