North Haven Democrats Host Community Earth Day Cleanup at Peter's Rock Park

North Haven: On Saturday, April 25, approximately 30 volunteers gathered at Peter's Rock Park for the North Haven Democratic Town Committee's 2026 Earth Day Community Cleanup, coming together to help beautify one of the town's treasured natural spaces.

Volunteers spent the morning clearing litter, cleaning trails, and working together to care for the park while celebrating Earth Day through hands-on community action. The event reflected the DTC's continued commitment to civic engagement, environmental stewardship, and building community connections through service.

"This was about neighbors coming together to take care of a place that means a lot to so many people in North Haven," said Ziv Quinzel, Deputy Secretary of the North Haven DTC and organizer

Mon., May 11, 6-7:45pm. Ages: 13+. Join us for a fun step-by-step painting of a summer night sky full of fireflies! Ashley Ewert is a Children's Librarian by day and a crafter of all things by night!

Take & Create - Re-Usable Beeswax Wrap: Tues., May 12, 10am-8pm, Location: Adult Service Desk. Age Group: 13+. Registration begins Tues., May 5-7. Pickup date: Tues., May 12 (at the adult service desk). Pickup time: 10am-8pm. Beeswax wrap is a reusable, compostable alternative to plastic wrap. We will provide the materials and directions for this take home craft.

Real or Fake? How AI is Changing What You See, Hear, and Trust: Tues., May 12, 3-4pm. Join Alex Linos, IT Director of the event. "Peter's Rock Park is one of our community's gems, and it was inspiring to see volunteers of all ages show up, work hard, and make a visible difference together."

The North Haven Democratic Town Committee thanked all of the volunteers who participated and helped make the cleanup a success.

"Events like this remind us that community doesn't just happen on Election Day," Quinzel added. "It's built every day through service, connection, and showing up for one another."

The DTC plans to continue organizing opportunities for residents to engage with and give back to the North Haven community throughout the year.

For more information or to get involved, reach out to info@northhavendemocrats.com for the Town of North Haven, for a plain-language, empowering presentation on how AI is changing what we see, hear, and trust, and what you can do to protect yourself and your family.

Middle School Chess Club: Tues., May 12, 6-7pm. Grades: 6th-8th. Looking for more middle schoolers to play with? Join our highly-requested Chess Club!
