North Haven's Music Under The Stars 2026

Opening Concert is Tuesday, June 2th

Rich DiPalma at 7:00PM

North Haven: Local vocalist Rich DiPalma is known throughout Connecticut primarily as an Italian American Tenor. Rich will display his musical versatility by performing a variety of songs from many different genres, oldies, doo-wop, and songs of crooners like Sinatra, Dean Martin and Bobby Darin. Rich and fellow singer Kaite Corda put a modem twist on classic songs of yesteryear.

Tuesday, June 9th "Hard Road" The core group is made up of Wanda on vocals, John on guitar and vocals and Art Densmore on violin. They have a wide variety of songs consisting of Classic Rock/Pop, Singer/Songwriter, Country, and Americana. Songs that are easy to listen to, easy to sing along to. Songs that are guaranteed to bring back a memory or two.

Thank You Probus Friends, From All of Us at The OCC Program, For Your Generosity!

We are very grateful to Probus members for all you do to support the intellectually and developmentally disabled community for all of your community service efforts!

Established in 2002, the Off-Campus Classroom Program (OCC) provides Transitional and Vocational training to students eligible for DDS services and who are between the ages of 18-22. In order to prepare these young adults for competitive employment, they need Transitional and Vocational training in a realistic community setting that allows them to be successful and independent.
