EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

Words of Inspiration

• If a person you care for shows the same feelings in return, consider yourself rich.
• Avoid peevish people because they only have their personal agenda as their priority.
• Everyone has the capability of being kind and generous.
• A gracious person can only be defined as one who deserves respect.
• Do not socialize with someone who humiliates you.
• Always look your best because the first impression is important.
• The wrong relationships just prepare you for the right one and when the right one comes you will be glad that the others did not pan out.
• Be the person that you want to be around.
• Honesty is the best policy.
• My own personal priority in life is to seek out the things that make me happy. It's not about being selfish but realizing that I will not be around forever.

North Haven High School Students Collecting Money For A Great Cause

North Haven: A group of our great North Haven High School students were standing at the entrance of the Stop and Shop driveway raising money for the Nolan family. It is for a NHHS teacher who lost her husband. All the money is for the NHHS Spring Brawl. What troopers they are, one girl was on crutches, she had a hip replacement, and another had a foot cast on. I give them all credit for their thoughtfulness, and compassion. Great job girls.

Two Amazing Students Raising Money For Connecticut Children

North Haven: In front of Stop and Shop, Amanda Stowe, and Liv Nevo were collecting money for the HUSKYTHON which is a student run organization through UConn that raises money all year for CT Children's organization. Amanda and Liv are on the morale team aiming to raise 2,500 each. The effort culminates in an 18 hour dance marathon in March. If anyone would like to donate this is our link https://events.dancemarathon.com participants 1228338 Amanda and Liv you are amazing and it is great to see our youth doing great things, thank you both.
