Hamden: Boy Scout Troop 610 held their Annual Family Picnic and Awards Ceremony on June 11, 2025, at Brooksvale Park in Hamden. The evening was highlighted with the presentation of the 50th "J. Russell Ryan Award" to Peter Intile. This memorial award is presented each year to the Scout in Troop 610 who best exemplifies the true ideals of Scouting through advancement, personal fitness, Scouting spirit, responsibility, troop commitment and leadership.

Peter Intile, is a Star Scout and has been in Scouting for 7 years. Peter recently graduated from Hamden High School and held leadership positions of Assistant Patrol Leader and Instructor for Troop 610. During this past Scouting Season, Peter earned the following Merit Badges; Entrepreneurship, Environmental Science and Citizenship in the Nation. He also earned the rank of Star.

Ranks presented to other members of Troop 610 at the Family Picnic included the rank of Tenderfoot to Logan Carney. The Second Class rank was presented to Marcello Fetta and the rank of Star to Ravi Camenga. Earning the rank of Life was Nathaniel Kroon and Ketan Camenga.

During the awards ceremony, a variety of merit badges were earned and presented to troop members Zayed Elahee, Nathaniel Kroon, Owen Arenberg and Ketan Camenga.

Boy Scout Troop 610 is sponsored by the Second Company Governors Foot Guard Association and meets on Tuesday evenings from 7:00 – 8:30PM at the Hamden Knights of Columbus Lodge. New Scouts are always welcome.
