A Helping Hand is Appreciated

To The Editor: October 22, 2024

Yesterday I was behind the Wells Fargo Bank when I lost my footing and fell onto the grass and curb. Immediately, two strangers and a bank employee offered their help. When the EMTs arrived they were kind and helpful.

Thanks so much to all who assisted me. I do appreciate it.

Sincerely,
Marge Healy, Northford.

North Haven's Annual Holiday Food Drive began October 16, when collection bins were set out at many businesses in town. The Food Drive, sponsored by the Churches of North Haven, is again collecting non-perishable food items to include in holiday boxes that will be delivered to families of North Haven for Thanksgiving and Christmas. North Haven families need as much help as possible.

There are many easy ways to donate food. Non-perishable food items can be donated directly to the Food Pantry at the North Haven Congregational Church any weekday morning between 8:00 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Collection bins are located at North Haven Memorial Library, North Haven Town Hall, Arnold's Jewelers – the North Haven Diamond Center, Be Some Body Fitness & Pilates, Carol's Creations, Connex Credit Union (North Haven Branch), Mio Salon, North Haven Health and Racquet, North Haven Pharmacy, Paul Mitchell School, Quinnipiac University School of Law, Quinnipiac Physical Therapy, Ron's Barber Shop, Sherwin Williams, Spectrum Hair, Surge, TD Bank, The Maids and U.S. Renal Care. North Haven Cub and Boy Scouts will be delivering bags to homes and will pick up the bags of food on November 9 between 9 and 11:30 am. Gift certificates or cash donations can be made toward the purchase of perishable items. Checks should be payable to North Haven Congregational Church, Food Drive in the memo line.

We will pack up the Thanksgiving and Christmas food boxes over the course of 2 days in small teams. We will provide a way to sign up for a team on the Congregational Church website. The Thanksgiving pickup and delivery will occur on November 23; Christmas pick up and delivery will be on December 21. Of course, food items delivered at all times will be added to the North Haven Food Pantry to be given during the year to needy families.

For more information and a list of specific food items needed, and if you or your business want to participate, please call the North Haven Congregational Church at 203-239-5691.
