Let's Share a Common Respect for Humanity

To The Editor:

October 17, 2024

I wanted to to share a few thoughts regarding the BOE meeting on October 10th. The one common theme through American history has been the prospect of change and moving society towards a greater understanding of itself. In the last few decades our society has seen a great change in how we view each other. The upward mobility that LGBTQ+ individuals has demonstrated has been admirable. While it has been an overwhelmingly joyous experience for those of us who do not identify as such to be accepted into the community as Allies & friends I consider an honor. This progress does not have its share of detractors as any movement would. Change can be scary for those who are not prepared or educated to accept a new ideal. Some will protest and react out of discomfortability and some will do the same based on judgment and hostility. All of which were on display at this meeting.

Firstly I have no issue with the administration or the Board of Education in general. They have a state law to uphold and emphasized their willingness to implement said law. I will leave any misgendering comments that were made for someone more qualified to address them. The concerns of a few parents initially, I can understand using the parameter of being unprepared and inexperienced. Change is scary and not everyone has the ability to accept right way, however, the use of degrading language and paranoid generalities does nothing to advance a positive dialogue. Referring to close proximity to a human as "being around that" or asking to opt-out of a class to avoid contact with the teacher, is not only demeaning but absolutely void of any type of emotion or understanding. I would suggest just as I did to take an uncomfortable situation and create a teachable moment. Such a demonstration will not be viewed warmly as time goes on. There are ways to approach these issues respectfully, unfortunately, for a few individuals; they did not choose to do so.

In conclusion I would gladly extend a walkway across the void of understanding we now are experiencing, to calmly and deliberately expose the truth and dispel the awful prejudicial stereotypes. I do not expect everyone to accept everything but I would much prefer they

I Believe Dave Yaccarino Has Earned Our Vote

To The Editor: October 17, 2024

I am writing this letter to show my support for Dave Yaccarino. I have known him for over 25 years. I have had the pleasure of walking with Dave for each one of his campaigns. Dave does not pass by any homes based upon the political affiliation or a bad encounter he had during a prior campaign. Dave is a genuine and compassionate person. He believes he was elected to help all North Haven residents not just the ones that voted for him or are registered Republicans. Dave takes his job seriously. You can see that with his voting record in Hartford which has been 100% since he has been in office. He encourages residents to reach out to him with any problems or concerns they may have. He is not afraid to vote against a bill he feels is not in the best interest of his constituents.

Dave continues to earn my vote and I hope yours, so on November 5th, I hope you vote with me for Dave.

Sincerely, Donald F. Clark, North Haven

In Support of Dave Yaccarino

To The Editor: October 17, 2024

When you hear the name David Yaccarino, you think of dedication, service, and love for the town of North Haven and it's residents. I was lucky enough to be David's third grade teacher and he was as amazing at 8 years old as he is today. If you need David for anything, just call and he will be there. The Town of North Haven is so fortunate to have David as our state representative. He has quite an impressive resume that I invite you to read. David has given and will give everything he has to us and this town. He is our champion! He is one of a kind! David is always available to North Haven residents to assist you in anyway.

Please don't hesitate to reach out to him. I am so proud to know David and to love him.

Sheila O'Neill Burns, North Haven

Our Voice in Hartford

To The Editor: October 17, 2024

I support David Yaccarino to continue to be our State Representative in the 87th District. Dave has proven repeatedly that his dedication to the Town of North Haven is strong and unshakeable. Dave is a caring and trustworthy individual who has always gone beyond to do what is best for all his constituents. He makes himself available to listen and to understand what voters are looking for. He is by far the best candidate for this position. I am confident he will continue to do what's right for all of us. He has never missed an opportunity to vote in Hartford and he always votes with our best interests at heart. He works tirelessly to make sure that North Haven is well respected and well represented.

As a former Registrar of Voters, I encourage everyone to get out and vote for Dave Yaccarino so that he may continue to be our voice in Hartford.

Sincerely, Laurie-Jean Hannon, North Haven

Strong Leadership Needed

To The Editor: October 17, 2024

I am writing to express my strong support for Brandi Mandato's candidacy for State Senate in District 34. As a North Haven resident and parent of two children in public schools, I care deeply about the future of our schools. Brandi has shown a clear commitment to improving education, supporting our educators, and ensuring that students have the resources they need to succeed.

Brandi Mandato will work for the people of District 34, not for herself. She understands the needs of our community and is dedicated to making sure our voices are heard in Hartford. Her platform focuses on education, public safety, and economic development—issues that impact all of us.

In these challenging times, we need strong leadership that puts people first. Brandi is that leader. I encourage my fellow residents of District 34 to vote for her and support a brighter future for our community.

Sincerely, Jennifer Feinberg, North Haven

Brings Many Years of Real-World Experience

To The Editor: October 17, 2024

I am writing to express my strong support for Brandi Mandato's candidacy for State Senate in District 34. Brandi's many years of experience working in economic and workforce development to help improve the lives of everyone in her community makes her uniquely positioned to be the best choice to represent our district.

I am a new resident of North Haven after spending 16 years in Middletown. During my time in Middletown, I watched it grow under Democratic leadership from an average town into a thriving community with excellent schools, a vibrant downtown that attracts people from all over, and increasing property values. The town works hand in hand with its biggest employers to grow the economy and invest in the community. The police force has worked to develop a great rapport with residents through its outreach, creating a safer community for all. I believe Brandi is the right person to help bring this same type of growth and development to District 34.

Brandi brings with her real-world experience that will help District 34 flourish. Her work after the 2008 recession designing initiatives to help get people back to work was recognized at the federal level as a best practice. She is someone who knows how to connect government and private sector in working together to ensure community initiatives are executed efficiently to maximize impact and minimize waste. People like Brandi with the unique ability to work across sectors are hard to come by, but crucial to getting things done.

I encourage all my fellow residents in District 34 to vote for Brandi Mandato on November 5. Let's elect someone with local roots who truly cares and will work tirelessly to make life in our community better for all.

Sincerely, Karen Meszaros, North Haven

We Deserve Nothing Less

To The Editor: October 17, 2024

I met Brandi Mandato on the North Haven DTC a few years ago and got to know her better when I joined the North Haven Pride committee after the town held its first, very successful Pride celebration in June 2023. Brandi was a co-founder of North Haven Pride and at the time was a co-chair of the committee. On both the DTC and Pride committee, Brandi proved herself to be a powerful voice of wisdom, justice, and vision, as well as a strong leader. She impressed me as a person who gets things done with warmth, energy, and good humor, along with a gift for building coalitions.

Having spent more than 20 years in economic and workforce development, Brandi is experienced in policy and advocacy at both the state and federal levels. She is a committed public servant who listens, responds, and cares. Her endorsements by many organizations such as the CT AFL-CIO, Working Families Party, Unlock Higher Ed, and Planned Parenthood speak to causes and issues that galvanize her. Brandi's constituents in District 34 will have a representative in Hartford who stands up for economic advancement, healthcare accessibility, reproductive rights, and excellence in education.

Brandi Mandato will be a strong voice for District 34 in Hartford. I encourage my neighbors in the district to vote for this terrific leader—we deserve nothing less.

Sincerely, Betsy Beacom, North Haven

Two New Ladies Are Sworn In As Hamden Lions Club Members

Hamden: At the Post 88 American Legion Hall, the Hamden Lions club members had their meeting starting with the pledge of allegiance, the past president Janet Sola read each members birthday, past and up coming ones. They were asked questions and each person received a gift of a small bottle of honey, or a bicentennial half dollar. Then everyone got up to eat the delicious food, with water soda, coffee, for all to enjoy. Then more business with the treasure account, and going over all other business was done. Then it was time to swear in the two new members by Alan Shultz, Shawna Salato, with Natalie Stock her sponsor, and Ellen Presnick, with her sponsor Sue Devine stood up and were pinned and given a membership paper. It was a great night seeing and meeting with friends, having fun. Good luck to the new members, we're glad to have you in our club, you're going to enjoy us and the club. ## Empowering Care Panel Shares Message Of Providing Safe And Holistic Care To The LGBTQ+ Community

North Haven: Five interdisciplinary healthcare providers recently sat on a panel moderated by Ash Krastev, co-chair of North Haven Pride, to share personal testimonies on their approach to gender-affirming care practices. The event, which took place at North Haven Memorial Library, was sponsored by North Haven Pride, an organization that seeks to educate the community around building safe and inclusive spaces in North Haven, advocate for the LGBTQ+ community, and celebrate Queer joy.

The speakers shared their individual approaches to providing safe and affirming care to their patients, and answered questions around their training, the barriers they encounter, and the ways in which their clinical environments are welcoming and inclusive to all patients.

Nurse practitioner Katy Tierney talked about meeting her patients where they are and offering them options and opportunities. She also spoke of cultivating a sense of "radical self acceptance" in her patient-clinician relationships. Licensed clinical social worker Tawanna Woolfolk spoke to creating a client-provider relationship focused on safety and attunement whenever she provides care and healing. One unifying theme echoed by all practitioners was that healthcare is a right and should be free for all to access.

The room was filled with an eager, interactive audience that asked thought-provoking questions and stayed after the event to speak with individual providers. All speakers acknowledged that they learn the most from their patients, and that they continue to learn and evolve as new and up-to-date, evidenced-based information is available to them.

North Haven Pride (NHP) hosted this event in honor of LGBTQ+ History month, which is observed annually in October. It is one of three NHP events on the calendar for October. More information about the schedule of events is available at northhavenpride.org.

GFWC Women's Club Honors Breast Cancer Awareness Month At Its October Meeting

North Haven: October is Breast Cancer Awareness month. Sadly the incidence of breast cancer especially in younger women is increasing. Current estimates indicate that 1 in 8 women in the US will encounter breast cancer in their lifetimes. The medical profession strongly urges women to begin to obtain mammograms at an earlier age and get them regularly each year. At its meeting on October 4, the GFWC Women's Club of North Haven urged women to get their mammograms and support Breast Cancer Awareness month by wearing pink.

The GFWC Women's Club of North Haven has embraced many projects over each club year designed to serve the community and support many needs. The North Haven Club regularly provides food donations to the Food Pantry of North Haven. The Club makes regular donations of socks, toiletries, paperback books, calendars and other items to the Veterans at the VA Hospital in West Haven. The Women's Club donates diapers, wipes, infant clothing and other infant items to Mary and Joseph's Place for mothers in need. Members of the Women's Club built a Little Free Library which is housed in front of the North Haven Congregational Church and keeps it filled with free books - especially children's books. Donations are provided to North Haven's Community Services. Also the Women's Club provides a donation of school supplies to a different North Haven Elementary School each year.

Normally meetings of the GFWC Women's Club of North Haven are held on the first Friday of each month from September to June at the North Haven Senior Center. If you would like to join us for one of our meetings, please call Pam Lerner and find out the particulars for an upcoming meeting. Come and meet other ladies who have made a commitment of service to our community.

Women interested in community service with the GFWC Women's Club of North Haven should contact Pam Lerner at (203) 281-3090, for additional information. Like us on Facebook at GFWC Women's Club of North Haven. You may also contact us at gfwcnh@gmail.com.

Question & Answer - Dr. Richard Durocher

Q: What is a stress fracture of the foot and how is it treated?

A: A stress fracture is a crack in the bone that can result from overuse of the foot. It often occurs when an athlete increases his/her activity level too rapidly or when an individual, who may be out of shape, tries to overdo it. The symptoms are often pain and swelling that increase with activities and improve with rest. The most common bone affected is the second metatarsal, (the long bone in the middle of the foot). This fracture may not show up on a standard x-ray. If symptoms persist despite normal x-ray findings, a bone scan is the most definitive diagnostic tool for a stress fracture.

Treatment is usually immobilization with a below-knee walking cast for 6-8 weeks. Orthoses (custom arch supports) may be prescribed to prevent future injuries if poor foot mechanics contribute to the fracture. Muscle strains may also cause pain in the foot. It is recommended to see the podiatrist to be sure that the pain in the foot is in fact a fracture so it can be diagnosed and treated.

Contact Dr. Richard Durocher for evaluation of this condition. Doctor is fluent in French & Spanish

PLANNING A FUNERAL WHILE GRIEVING

Processing the death of a loved one and planning a big event like a funeral can be completely overwhelming, especially when they happen at the same time. Get organized with a funeral planning template that includes all the tasks and details. When your close friends and family call with offers to help, ask them to take on a planning task. They can consult you on important decisions but move individual tasks forward themselves. There are also many professionals offering funeral-related services, and this is a good time to rely on expert help so you can focus on yourself. If you feel pressed for time, consider holding an intimate service now, and plan a larger memorial or celebration to hold later.

Planning a funeral can be overwhelming, but you are not alone in this. The professionals at North Haven Funeral Home are here to support you throughout this journey and make this process one of love, healing, and life celebration.
