Probus Club "Wrapped in Love" Community Project

Hamden: The Greater New Haven Probus Club is sponsoring a community-based project, "Wrapped in Love."

Probus Club's supply of used clothing, which we distribute to many organizations in our community, is dwindling! We need your help replenishing the supply of gently used clothing, towels, sheets, blankets, hand/bath/and beach towels, which we donate to homeless families, children, veterans, residential group homes and many others in our community.

We will be accepting your much deeded donations on Sun., May 19, from 11am-2pm at Kohl's in Hamden. See our trailer in the parking lot.

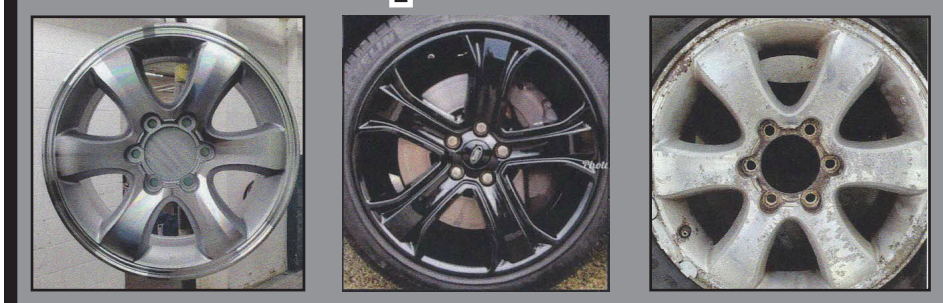

For additional information, contact: gnhavenprobus@gmail.com.

All donations are tax deductible as Probus Club is a 501c3 organization.

For more information about us, please contact Roy Lukacs at (475) 224-9774.

North Haven Lions Club

SECOND SATURDAY SERVICE PROJECT

The North Haven Lions need your help to restock the food pantries! With prices at the supermarket at all-time highs, our neighbors in need are really feeling the pain. Please stop by our Second Saturday Service event on Sat., May 11, from 10am-1pm at the North Haven Congregational Church, 28 Church Street (across from the Town Green).

We are collecting non-perishable food, as well as dog and cat food, pet treats and supplies, diapers, women's hygiene products, and old eyeglasses. The North Haven Leos will be there to also accept your recyclable bottles and cans. These donations will restock the local food pantries and The Diaper Bank provide supplies to Fidelco Guide Dogs and The Animal Haven, and support the Lions Recycle for Sight Program and Connecticut Lions Eye Research Foundation.

Through Second Saturday activities, the North Haven Lions Club engages in service projects for our local community and has been serving our town since 1952.

For more information about our service activities, or to be part of something meaningful, contact Jim Bennett, North Haven Lions Club at NorthHavenLionsClub@gmail.com.

Paint Hamden Pink Steps Out Around Town

Hamden: On April 6, Joanne Johnson and Michelle Chernacke-McNulty represented Paint Hamden Pink at Keefe Center Health and Wellness Fair sponsored by Quinnipiac University. Their goal was to raise awareness about Paint Hamden Pink's mission: to educate people in Hamden about breast cancer and to promote early detection-key to saving lives.

Founded in 2017, Paint Hamden Pink has cast a wide net, attending numerous community fairs, speaking at schools and senior centers, and raising funds for cancer research. We'll be at the 12th Annual Free Market and Health Fair on June 8 at the Dixwell Community House, 197 Dixwell Ave, New Haven, so be sure to find us there.
